MEDIA ALERT! Discover the business benefits of sustainable building design

Sustainable design pays off. LEED-certified buildings have consistently achieved higher rents than their non-LEED counterparts, averaging 11.1% higher rent.* At the same time, conscious buyers and tenants are increasingly seeking out more sustainable spaces.

Our next online event will examine some of the most impactful projects in sustainable design and the tools and teams behind them.

Join us on Thursday, November 14, at 2:00 PM \(CET\) to learn where the industry stands on sustainable design adoption, the benefits and business cases of cutting-edge strategies - like prioritizing renovation over demolition - and how digital tools can accelerate building processes.

The event registration is in English. Subtitles in English, French, German, Spanish, and Brazilian-Portuguese will be available. Can't make it? Sign up for the on-demand replay.
